ELLIOTT'S DISGRACE.

The Custer Guard Quartermaster Confesses That He Is a Thief.

Theodore Elliott, quartermaster sergeant of the Custer Guard, is in deep disgrace, and has, only for the kindness of Capt. Ed. Bennett, been kept from being punished for his evil doings.

For some time past members of the company have been missing valuables from their clothing which was hung in the locker room during drill. Small sums of money and other valuables having disappeared from time to time. Little articles of ornamentation around the armory parlor, and state property have also been missing, but the members of the company were unable to locate the thief.

When on the return trip from Chicago, the conductor of the train discovered that a silver card stand, which he had purchased in Chicago for his wife had been stolen, and with Captain Bennett, Lieutenant Voss and Norris, he made a systematic search of the car for it, but it could not be found. At last suspicion began to rest on Elliott, who was by his rank as quartermaster enabled to have easy access to the armory or any part of it at any time, and Captain Bennett reluctantly put Detective Smith and Barr on the case. They visited Elliott's home Friday night and found in his room a photograph holder, three state blankets, one pair of state trousers, one large United States flag, one uniform cord, one belt, one sword and scabbard, one state overcoat, two fatigue coats, and one 38-caliber revolver, aggregating $25.50 in value.

Elliott was found drilling a company of cadets from the Park Congregational church in the basement of the Hogie Oil company's building on Ottawa street and was taken to headquarters. At first he denied everything, but finally broke down and confessed having stolen the goods and also having taken sums of money from his comrades' pockets while they were drilling. He said it would amount to about $20.

The goods were returned to Captain Bennett, who feels very bad over the downfall of Elliott. He refused to prosecute him and Elliott was allowed to go home.

FOUR MEN DECAPITATED.

Alaska Indians Carry Out a Plan of Revenge.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 5.—The steamer Chiluk arrived here today from Alaska, she left Fort Rangle October 29, and while there it was learned that four white men had been found in the camp at Fort Rangle, Kuperukoff island, with their heads cut off and their clothing stripped from their bodies. The crimes are supposed to have been committed by Kake Indians, as an outcome of the Kake Indians trouble last year. The murdered men were miners.

Bay City's Good Showing.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—A preliminary report on the manufacturing industries of Bay City, Mich., issued by the census bureau today, shows that average wages per hand have increased from a $209, in 1920, to $232 in 1921, or 20.1 per cent and the municipal debt less the sinking fund has decreased 4.15 per cent.

A Waspish Sting.

What some men term "the business end of a wasp" stings with scarcely more antiseptic than the acid excretions of gas from the stomach to the gut that are characterized as heartburn. Never was there a case of indigestion without this symptom. Both cause and effect are removable by the fine curative tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which counteracts and restores a disordered and unbalanced stomach with certainty and dispatch. Besides checking the pranks of a rebellious stomach, the bitters wakes up a dormant liver, and causes the bowels to act like clockwork. An immediate regulation has also been won by this professional's approved medicine as a means of eradicating and preventing indigestion, and counteracting a tendency to flatulency and indigestion. Neuritis and nervousness are also remedied by it.

Abraham Lincoln

When leaving his home at Springfield, Ill., to be inaugurated as president of the United States, made a farewell address to his old friends and neighbors, in which he said, "Neighbors, give your boys a chance."

These words come with as much force today as they did thirty years ago.

How give them this chance?

Up in the northwest is a great empire waiting for young and sturdy fellows to come and develop it and "grow up with the country." All over this broad land are the young fellows, the boys that Lincoln referred to, seeking to better their condition and get on in life.

The country referred to lies along the Northern Pacific railroad. Here you can find pretty much anything you want. In Minnesota, and in the Red river valley of North Dakota, the finest of the lands under the wheat and grain, or as well for diversified farming.

In Western North Dakota and Montana are stock ranges limitless in extent, clothed with the most nutritious of grasses.

If a fruit farming region is wanted, there is the whole state of Washington to select from.

As for scenic delights, the Northern Pacific railroad passes through a country unparalleled. In crossing the Rocky, Bitter Root and Cascade mountains the greatest scenery to be seen in the United States from car windows is found. The wonderful bad lands, wonderful natural formations and glowing colors, are a poem. Lakes Pend d'Oreille and Coeur d'Alene are alone worthy of a trans-continental trip, while they are the fisherman's Ultima Thule. The ride along Clark's Fork of the Columbia river is a daylight dream. To cap the climax, this is the only way to reach the far famed Yellowstone Park.

To reach and see all this the Northern Pacific railroad furnishes trains and service of unsurpassed excellence. The most approved and comfortable palace sleeping cars; the best dining cars that can be made; Pullman tourist cars good for both first and second class passengers; easy riding day coaches, with baggage, express and postal cars, all drawn by powerful Baldwin locomotives, make a train fit for royalty itself.

Those seeking for new homes should take this train and go and spy out the land. To be prepared, write to

Mr. Moore, the postmaster at Bradshaw, Va., after reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, concluded to try a small bottle of it. He says: "I used it in two cases for colic and three for diarrhoea with perfect satisfaction. I have handled and used a great deal of patent medicine, but never tried any that gave as good results as this." For sale by F. J. Wurzburg, druggist, 58 Monroe street.

Are your children subject to croup? If so, you should never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is a certain cure for croup, and has never been known to fail. There is no danger in giving this Remedy in large and frequent doses, as it contains nothing injurious. 50 cent bottles for sale by F. J. Wurzburg, druggist, 58 Monroe street.

THE BEST PLASTER.

Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale by F. J. Wurzburg, druggist, 58 Monroe street.
